Summer Young Artists

The Heckscher Museum of Art

"Community ArtSense"

August 25 – September 16, 2007

Reception: Tuesday, August 28, 6:00-8:00 PM

The fourth annual "Community ArtSense" exhibit highlights the extraordinary work of select young artists ages 5 through 16 who participated in The Heckscher Museum of Art's summer workshop series during 2007. Up to four student artworks from each session have been selected for inclusion in this culminating exhibition.

"ArtSense" was more exciting than ever this year, as the Museum invited local professional artists, working in a variety of media and techniques, to provide first-hand inspiration for participating young artists. Each week, participants met a new Artist-in-Residence, learned about his or her artwork, and engaged in a wide array of hands-on visual art activities. Students were encouraged to create their own unique responses to the artists' works.

This year's exhibit also features works by the Artists-in-Residence, including George D'Amato, Thea Lanzisero Monier-Williams, Andreas Rentsch, Helen Rousakis, Neil Scholl, Allyson Uttendorfer, Shawn Uttendorfer, and Constance Wain. The Museum would like to thank them for generously donating their time and expertise to this program.
