“HUNTINGTON BEACHES” AND OTHER LANDSCAPES”

August 1 – August 29, 2008

Reception: Saturday, August 2nd 2-5:00 pm

Elizabeth Ehrlichman received her Master of Fine Arts degree in painting from Brooklyn College in 1987, where she studied with Lennart Andersen and Philip Pearlstein among others. Her current paintings include the landscapes in this show and large scale figure paintings with words. Each of her paintings in this series is a direct response to the landscapes of Long Island; to its spaces, its places, its weathers and, perhaps most of all, its light. The paintings were all begun outdoors and finished indoors. Water media, has been one of her favorites, evoking a spontaneous and free feeling. It has always been exciting for Liz to go outside with paints and paper and return to her studio with a finished (or almost finished) work. Painting the beaches, for Liz, has been pure fun. It had been her intention to paint every one of the Huntington beaches. Let her know if she has missed one of your favorites.
