“15 Years of Picture Books”

January 10 – March 2, 2009

Reception: Sunday, January 18th; 2:00-5:00 PM

William Low has been working as an award winning painter and illustrator professionally for over 23 years. He is currently the principal in Cobalt Illustration Studios, a full service illustration studio that produces illustrations for corporate use, children's books, advertisements, gallery paintings and fine art quality prints. Clients include: Chronicle Books, Compaq Computers, Eddie Bauer, Inc., Guideposts Magazine, Harcourt Brace and Company, Henry Holt & company, Houston's Restaurants, Metropolitan Transit Authority and Philomel Books. Many of his original paintings are on permanent view at various Houston's restaurants around the country.

William recently wrote and authored Old Penn Station a children's picture book on the history of one of New York City's most infamous buildings. He gives talks and demonstrations on inspiration for that book nationwide.

William has been teaching painting and illustration for over 20 years. He is currently a professor at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York City where he teaches an innovative painting Technique on the computer to undergraduates and graduate students. As an educator he has taught traditional painting and illustration classes at the School of Visual Arts in NYC, and has conducted lectures and seminars at the Ringling School of Art, Syracuse University, Maryland Institute College of Art, the Society of Illustrators and the Norman Rockwell Museum.
