Summer Young Artists

featuring emerging artists from the Huntington community

Caitlin Yarsky

“Portraits and Figure Drawings”

July 17-August 7, 2006

Reception: Saturday July 22, 2:00-4:00 PM

Caitlin Yarsky attended the Huntington School of Fine Arts where she began learning the fundamentals of painting, drawing and sculpture. She then attended Bennington College and apprenticed with renowned sculptor Randy Morrison in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras Parade of 2004. Caitlin transferred to the Rochester Institute of Technology in 2005 where she currently studies Illustration and Fine Arts.

Caitlin continues to refine her skills in painting and drawing. Since she loves the human figure, she primarily paints people from life and photographs. She is interested in doing family and individual portrait painting and drawing, as well as mural painting and illustration work.
