Roslyn Marcus
"Artistic Creations"

March 1 – April 25, 2010

Dr. Roz Marcus was born and raised in New York. She attended Temple University and Pratt Institute, where she developed her creative abilities in fashion design, jewelry making, sculpture, and painting.

She has always dabbled in the arts and discovered her great passion for photography about nine years ago. Her focus on photography combined with her life-long dream of becoming a professional artist, has ignited her interest in decoupage. She has created new techniques and interwoven the two. Currently Roz is working on new and exciting technical approaches. Her skills are expressed in contemporary combinations of fantasies. She demonstrates a wide range of emotional freshness combined with the familiar and the mundane. Her creative process is both thought provoking and whimsical.

Dr. Roz Marcus also attended Adelphi University in 1980 and earned her Master's degree in Social Work and her Doctorate in Psychology. She has a private practice on Long Island for the past 24 years, and continues to practice as a psychotherapist in Roslyn.
